5) Student must hold a "B" average (80% or above) across high school social studies courses.

6) Student must be involved in community service activities.

*Judging Criteria

The essay's quality of content as well as the writing skills, including grammar will be main factors in selection for the scholarship. The other application items (honors and awards, leadership positions, community service, and extracurricular activities) will be used when applicant essays are deemed comparable ("a tie") by the scholarship selection committee. Socioeconomic status/circumstance are not collected on this application nor used as criteria for awarding the scholarship, however, they may be included as supporting details in the applicant's essay.

Application deadline is May 1st. Proof of veteran status or guardianship along with proof of school acceptance are not required at submission, only upon award of the scholarship if requested.

-Application forms and essays can be submitted by mail at Newfane American Legion Post 873, P.O. Box 72, Newfane NY 14108 and should be received by the Post or post marked by this date.

-Application forms and essays can also be submitted to newfanelegion@yahoo.com by the date above
