Application

Please submit application by March 30, 2024

Purpose Statement

The purpose of scholarship through Kappa Upsilon Zeta Scholarship Foundation, Inc. is to provide financial assistance to matriculating minority female college students in pursuit of self-improvement through education. It is our fervent prayer that the award is received with a spirit of thanksgiving and utilized to support the aspirations of its recipient.

Connie C. Bowman Book Scholarship - $250 (Graduate, Undergraduate and High School):

Mrs. Connie C. Bowman became a member of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Incorporated at Jackson State University in the fall of 1970. Connie C. Bowman graduated from Jackson State University as an honors student with a Bachelor of Science in Social Science and a Master of Science in Secondary Education. She kept the flame of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Incorporated alive when she and four other phenomenal members of the sorority-chartered Kappa Upsilon Zeta Chapter of Buffalo, NY in 1981. Connie was a tireless, committed, and exemplary educator who cared foremost for her students. There was never a child she felt didn't deserve the best she had to offer; and, tried to instill within them the knowledge, drive, will and understanding that they could achieve success with work. Connie C. Bowman also served as a Professor within the Graduate School of Education for SUNY Buffalo. Connie C. Bowman was a true example of the principles of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Incorporated. Her passion to educate others and encourage scholarly pursuits is evident throughout her career. She set an example for others to follow as a Finer Woman who always remained sisterly and actively engaged in her community. Connie C. Bowman's legacy continues through her daughter, Kimberly N. Bowman, as a member of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Incorporated and her husband, Albert R. Bowman, a member of our brother organization, Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Incorporated.
