

Social Studies
Chapter 5
Study Guide

The British defeat at Fort _____ started the French and Indian War.

Place Card Here

People who sided with British rule were _____.

_____ read the Declaration of Independence to his troops in New York.

What was the name of Sybil Ludington's horse?

New York City was under _____ control through most of the Revolutionary War.

After the Battle of Saratoga, the _____ joined the Patriots in the Revolutionary War.

The people who were against British rule were called _____.

Who defeated British troops at the Battle of Saratoga?

Who convinced the Iroquois not to join the French in the French and Indian War?

What was the Stamp Act?

Who was the Native American leader of British troops at Oriskany?

Who spread the news of the British arriving at Danbury?

How did George Washington outsmart the British when he was on Long Island?

Place Card Here

Who along with the Green Mountain Boys captured Fort Ticonderoga in the Revolutionary War?

Where did the American Revolution end?

Name: _____

1. What statement allowed colonies to become independent, or free, from British rule. Be sure to include:

- what the statement is known as
- who wrote it
- when Congress approved it
- why this date is still important today

---

---

---

---

---

2. What was British General John Burgoyne's plan to capture New York for Britain? Be sure to include:

- where the troops in his plan were coming from
- where the soldiers were headed
- what happened to the groups of soldiers before they made it to their final destination

---

---

---

---

---

---

---